RE: C-TPAT Inquiry

MNP has received your request with regards to the "Customer Trade Partnership Against Terrorism" (C-TPAT). We have reviewed the C-TPAT requirements and have made a business decision not to pursue C-TPAT certification at this time.

MNP commits itself to meeting the security requirements appropriate to our business practices and has in place specific security procedures as they relate to the safe control of shipments to our customers. These procedures are continuously monitored for any necessary changes.

Sincerely,
